Highlights: "

The match began a bit late, and so both the teams decided to go for 35 overs, and day was cloudy humid and hot, but towards the evening it was pleasant weather. The batting (second) could not take advantage of it, Nevertheless, the Knights who batted second really pelted the Lehigh Valley bowlers, the beginning was so fiercely that any team without a good discipline and sportmanship would go out of control to become demoralised. But here the story was different the Lehigh valley with brilliant batting by Naazer Ashraf, the man of the match, kept his cool though with a couple of life he survived to reach his century, and remained not out, the team capitalised on any chance and encouraged each other and they had a good laugh at the end. Knights were good to start
